T.O.R.C.H.E.S.: LEADERSHIP LESSONS FROM THE HINMAN TORNADO

TRUTH ♦ ORDER ♦ RESPONSIBILITY ♦ COURAGE ♦ HUMILITY ♦ EMPOWERMENT ♦ STAMINA

Crisis in the dental practice can have many faces: the break-up of a partnership, the loss of a loved one or a natural disaster. What happens to us as individuals significantly impacts our capability to care for patients. Crisis preparation is an intentional approach to building personal strength that will survive any eventuality by using the T.O.R.C.H.E.S. methodology. Dr. Wade’s experiences from the Hinman Tornado (2008) are used as a metaphor for surviving life’s storms.

OSTEONECROSIS OF THE JAWS: CUTTING THROUGH THE CONFUSION

With increasing frequency, dentists are being asked to make complex diagnostic decisions for their patients taking bisphosphonate medications. Dr. Wade presents an evidence-based approach to the problem.

“LET YOUR LIGHT SO SHINE”: BUILDING A DENTAL MISSION TEAM

Since 1994, Dr. Wade has donated his time and talent by leading regular dental mission trips, helping those who have limited – or no – access to quality dental care. Planning a mission trip during the next year? Whether you are a dentist, assistant or hygienist, a veteran or novice, this course is for you!

“MY TOOTH DID THIS?”:

A GUIDE TO MAXILLOFACIAL INFECTIONS FOR THE GENERAL DENTIST

Many questions arise when a patient presents with a facial infection. Dr. Wade’s comprehensive review of pertinent clinical information enables the general dentist to make a correct diagnosis and either treat or refer to the appropriate specialist.

T.O.R.C.H.E.S.

LEADERSHIP LESSONS FROM THE HINMAN TORNADO

TRUTH • ORDER • RESPONSIBILITY • COURAGE • HUMILITY • EMPOWERMENT • STAMINA

Crisis in the dental practice can have many faces: the break-up of a partnership, the loss of a loved one or a natural disaster. Just reading the newspaper confirms that it is not a matter of IF a crisis will occur but rather WHEN! Regardless of what we hear about not bringing our personal life into the office it's clear that what happens to us as individuals significantly impacts our capability to care for patients. Crisis preparation is an intentional approach to building personal strength that will survive any eventuality by using the T.O.R.C.H.E.S. methodology. Dr. Wade uses his experience in surviving the Hinman Tornado of 2008 as a metaphor for surviving life's storms.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Strengthen your leadership skills regardless of your title in the office.
- Learn objective situation assessment.
- Enrich your life and the lives of those around you.
- Become a leader that others will follow.
- Develop "dogged determination" to accomplish whatever you set out to do.

OSTEONECROSIS OF THE JAWS

CUTTING THROUGH THE CONFUSION

With increasing frequency, dentists are being asked to make complex diagnostic decisions for their patients taking bisphosphonate medications. Conflicting case reports and anecdotal evidence have left most clinicians unsure of how to answer patient questions regarding the development of osteonecrosis of the jaws, its diagnosis, management and prevention. An author and lecturer on bisphosphonate induced osteonecrosis of the jaws, Dr. Wade will present an evidence-based approach to the problem.

DR. WADE WILL ANSWER PRESSING QUESTIONS, SUCH AS:

- Should a patient stop their bisphosphonate medication?
- When is it safe for a bisphosphonate patient to have an extraction?
- Can a bisphosphonate patient have an implant placed?
- What treatments are appropriate if the patient develops osteonecrosis of the jaw?
- How do I communicate with the patient's medical doctor regarding this problem?

NOTE: Separate presentation for spouses and non-clinical staff also available.

SUGGESTED PRESENTATION LENGTHS:

- Keynote
- Half Day program

PRESENTATIONS INCLUDE:

- Greater Forsyth Study Club; Winston Salem, NC
- Minnesota Academy of General Dentistry; St. Paul, MN
- Star of the North; St. Paul, MN
- Seattle Study Club Director's Symposium; Seattle, WA
- Seattle Study Club National Symposium; Maui HI
- Thomas P Hinman Dental Meeting; Atlanta, GA

“LET YOUR LIGHT SO SHINE”

BUILDING A DENTAL MISSION TEAM

The best leaders celebrate success by giving. Since 1994, Dr. Wade has donated his time and talent by leading regular dental mission trips, helping those who have limited – or no – access to quality dental care. Under his leadership, volunteer teams have provided a full range of dental services to hundreds of orphans in Ukraine. Planning a mission trip during the next year? Whether you are a dentist, assistant or hygienist, a veteran or novice, this course is for you! Bring your materials and get a jump-start on organizing your journey.

DR. WADE WILL DISCUSS EFFECTIVE WAYS TO:

- Identify a destination
- Build a team that works well together
- Acquire equipment
- Coordinate transportation
- Deal with customs officials
- Work with translators
- Thrive in a cross-cultural environment!

SUGGESTED PRESENTATION LENGTHS:

- Keynote

MY TOOTH DID THIS?

A GUIDE TO MAXILLOFACIAL INFECTIONS FOR THE GENERAL DENTIST

Many questions arise when a patient presents with a facial infection. Dr. Wade's comprehensive review of pertinent clinical information enables the general dentist to make a correct diagnosis and either treat or refer to the appropriate specialist.

LEARN THE ANSWER TO THESE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS:

- Is the infection of dental origin?
- Does it require dental or surgical treatment?
- What are the signs that the patient's condition might deteriorate rapidly?
- Which antibiotics and what doses should be prescribed?
- ... and more!

MEET DR. WADE

HE DOESN'T JUST SPEAK. HE PRACTICES!

Nothing adds spark and credibility to a keynote address, breakout session, or workshop like real-life, in-the-trenches illustrations. Dr. Marshall Wade – one of the rare dental industry speakers who still maintains a thriving practice delivers this – and more.

Attendees of his programs have described them as provocative, unique, refreshing and inspiring. Dr. Wade helps his audience members deeply appreciate their gifts and capabilities and increase their success and enjoyment of every aspect of dentistry.

His peers have also recognized his talents. In 2007, Dr. Wade was awarded the Speaking Consulting Network's highest honor. He is also an award winning Seattle Study Club director.

Dr. Wade has authored and lectured on both clinical and personal development topics. His articles have appeared in publications such as Grand Rounds in Oral-Systemic Medicine and Dental Economics. As a clinician, was voted "Top Dentist" by his peers in Minneapolis-St. Paul magazine and Minnesota Monthly magazine.

In addition to his private practice, Dr. Wade is the founder of LionsGate Leadership Coaching and True North Professional Studies, a "university without walls" for dentists and staff. He has also led multiple dental mission teams to provide care for orphans in Ukraine.

Look for Dr. Wade at these prestigious upcoming industry events:
